Murillo/ Malnati Group Names Construction Manager

(Washington, DC) – Murillo/ Malnati Group (MMG) has named John Neil to the position of construction manager. He is overseeing construction of the Woodley-Wardman condominiums, which recently broke ground. Mr. Neil brings more than 25 years experience working in Washington, D.C. residential, retail and commercial real estate.

“John knows DC real estate inside and out. From complex planning and zoning issues to seeing a project from start through to completion, John is deeply experienced and a great addition to our team,” said Julio Murillo, managing member of MMG.

Prior to joining MMG, Mr. Neil was construction manager at Waterford Development and Mark Winkler Company. Of note is his work on Spectrum, a 600,000 square foot project with condominiums, and retail and commercial space in Falls Church, VA. He is a graduate of Purdue University with a degree in construction management. He lives in Herndon, Virginia.

Mr. Neil is one of three new hires at MMG and its affiliate Renovations Unlimited. Murillo Malnati Group was established in 2001 when recognized leaders from different fields of the construction and real estate industries joined forces to capitalize on their respective areas of expertise and the opportunities available in the residential renovation and condominium development market in Washington, D.C.

Since its inception, the company has developed more than 30 single-family and multi-family projects across the District in neighborhoods such as Dupont Circle, Logan Circle, Woodley Park, Columbia Heights, Mount Vernon Square, Capitol Hill, Shaw, LeDroit Park and Brookland.

Renovations Unlimited is an award-winning residential general contracting firm specializing in high-end historic renovations since 1984.
